BI-STATE HIRES KRISTINE STODDARD, JD, FOR NH PUBLIC POLICY POSITION

Kristine E. Stoddard

BOW, NH – Nov 13, 2012 - Bi-State Primary Care Association is pleased to announce the hiring of Kristine E. Stoddard, JD, last month as the new director of NH Public Policy. Stoddard graduated from the University of New Hampshire School of Law and holds a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration in Finance from the University of Arizona. Stoddard served for six years as a legislative research analyst at the Arizona House of Representatives. “Kristine’s extensive experience working with legislators, lobbyists, and agencies makes her an excellent fit for this position,” said Bi-State’s executive director, Tess Stack Kuenning.

Kristine Stoddard, director of NH Public Policy, is located in Bi-State’s Bow office at 525 Clinton Street and can be reached at 603-228-2830 x 113 or via email: kstoddard@bistatepca.org. To learn more about Bi-State, please visit: www.bistatepca.org.

Established in 1986, Bi-State Primary Care Association, serving New Hampshire and Vermont, is a nonpartisan, nonprofit 501 (c) (3) charitable organization with a broad membership of thirty-five organizations. As a “voice” for the medically underserved, Bi-State works with federal, state, and regional policymakers, foundations, and payers to develop effective strategies, policies, and programs that are designed to sustain community-based, primary health care services.
