2013 Primary Care Conference: Building Primary Care Capacity for the Future

NEW HAMPSHIRE/VERMONT – April 9, 2013 -- Bi-State Primary Care Association will host the 27th Primary Care Conference: Building Primary Care Capacity for the Future, on Tuesday, May 14, 2013, at Lake Morey Resort in Fairlee, VT. The Conference is designed to meet the needs of primary care administrative, board, and clinical leadership, especially Community Health Centers and hospital-based or private primary care practices. Online registration is open now: www.bistatepca.org.

Keynote speaker, Thomas Van Coverden, President/CEO of the National Association of Community Health Centers, will describe the political events leading up to health care reform and what we can expect from Congress and the president's administration going forward.

A payment reform panel comprised of national and state experts will discuss the changing landscape of payment reform and its impact on Community Health Centers.

Three professional workshops will be offered, including: Managing FTCA Risk, A Key Component of Your Enterprise Risk Management Program; ICD-10 Transition and Impact; and Federal Health Care Reform: Implications for Board Members.

The Awards Ceremony Luncheon is included in the registration. Bi-State awards will be presented to seven people who have made significant efforts to improve access to affordable health care in Vermont and New Hampshire.

Early bird rates apply through April 19; final deadline to register is May 3, 2013. Space is limited, first come, first served. Conference details and registration available online: <http://www.regonline.com/primarycareconference2013>
