BI-STATE PRIMARY CARE ASSOCIATION WELCOMES MARY KATE MOHLMAN, PH.D. TO ITS STAFF

MONTPELIER, VT – August 16, 2021 -- Bi-State Primary Care Association is pleased to announce that Mary Kate Mohlman, Ph.D., has joined Bi-State as its new Director of Vermont Public Policy. Dr. Mohlman will represent the interests of the people in Vermont and Bi-State members on matters of health care access and payment reform, and advocate to improve access to primary and preventive health care services for Vermont residents.

Dr. Mohlman joins Bi-State Primary Care Association having previously worked within the Vermont Agency of Human Services. As Health Services Researcher for the Blueprint for Health, she was deeply involved in payment reform, evaluation, and programmatic support, including Patient-Centered Medical Homes and Community Health Teams. She also served as the director of Health Care Reform at the Agency of Human Services and most recently supported the latest evolution of COVID-19 testing and vaccination planning.

"Dr. Mohlman brings a wealth of knowledge and experience in public health and health care policy that will benefit the people of Vermont in her new role at Bi-State. She is extremely committed to our mission of serving those most in need and looks very forward to working directly with the Vermont Health Centers. We are delighted that she has joined us, and we look forward to working with her," said Tess Stack Kuenning, CNS, MS, RN, President, and CEO.

"I'm excited to join the Bi-State Primary Care Association team and have a role in the mission to support access to primary care. Furthermore, I believe their approach to integrated and whole-person care is an important model within the broader context of Vermont's efforts in health care reform," said Dr. Mohlman.

Dr. Mohlman holds a Doctor of Philosophy in Global Infectious Disease, a Master of Science in Biomedical Science Policy and Advocacy from Georgetown University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Philosophy from Boston College.
