

How a Bill Becomes a Law

Ideas for legislation can come from constituents, the Governor, an agency, lobbying organization, or a committee, but only a legislator or legislative standing committee can introduce a bill and may begin in either chamber.

Measures must pass both the House and Senate in identical form before being presented to the Governor.

Legislation presented to the Governor.

